

VALLEY CITY

Mrs. J. E. Andrews of Carden, Kan., is visiting relatives here this week.

Mrs. Gallagher and daughter Mildred of Cleveland are visiting at John Houck's this week.

Robert Watros of State Road, O., is visiting his uncle, A. H. Troxell, this week.

Chas. Bauman and Carl Krause left for the State fair Thursday.

Mabel Baker of Youngstown is at A. H. Troxell's this week.

J. T. Worth and wife are visiting at Sullivan this week.

Sept. 19 and 20 will be the eightieth celebration of the incorporation of the Zion Lutheran church.

Alena Ilgenfritz of Detroit is the guest of Miss Elsie Platz this week.

A dance will be held at the town hall Thursday evening, Sept. 9.

Valley City will hold a street carnival the 23-24-25 of September. It is for a home-coming.

Zion's Lutheran Sunday school held their annual picnic today in Carl Bowers' grove.

The township trustees have petitioned the county commissioners to improve our little hamlet by eliminating the big ditch west of town. Everybody is pleased with this much needed improvement.

The Lyceum Home Fair committee will hold a home fair and street carnival on Sept. 23, 24 and 25. They expect to give away a pony, harness and cart to the one holding the lucky number. Merry-go-round, aerial wheel, vaudeville and moving pictures. The secretary, A. W. Gienke, is receiving letters daily concerning concessions. All expect a good time.

The five young ladies who have been visiting Miss Martha Appleby, returned home on Sunday to begin their school duties.

Mr. A. W. Gienke transacted business in Akron on Tuesday.

Our schools open on Sept. 7. A large attendance is expected.

Mr. John Hoppe visited his sister, Mrs. Seman, in Seville, this week.

The oil well south of town is over 2000 feet down at present. We understand a new company is trying to lease more farms.

C. Kaiser entertained his brother from Cleveland, Tuesday.

A. W. Gienke closed a contract with Rogers' orchestra to furnish dance music during the home fair.

Our genial friend, Frank Weidner, will carry the mail on route No. 2, while A. W. Hoppe is on his vacation.

Our city lighting system has been extended down Mill street. Why not have it on all the streets? Why not get busy, gentlemen?

Wedding bells will ring on Monday in the south-west part of the township.

Would like to tell, but honest, we are afraid.

Miss Bertha Strosacker entertained a party of friends at "500" on Wednesday evening.

Our old friend, Fred Keller, was a visitor to our sanctum on Wednesday. Call again, Fred, you are always welcome.

The clay plant on Ed. Bauer's farm is developing rapidly.

Brosa Erhart was a visitor on Wednesday.

The farmers who ship milk to Cleveland have received orders to seal or plaster their milk houses. Wonder what next?

Mr. Adolph Wolf is erecting a new garage on his lot on Main street.

Richard Platz is certainly some fisherman. One day this week he caught 18 black bass, the net weight, 24 lbs. Honest, boys, Dick caught them.

The bridge west of Beitts' store is slowly nearing completion.

The Bauer family reunion was held at the Carl Bauer farm on Wednesday.

Albin Platz returned to his duties on Monday from Ft. Wayne and the anvil rings merrily again.

The Zacharias-Bay reunion will be held at G. F. Messmer's on Labor day.

William Grabenstetter returned from an automobile trip to Sidney, O. Miss Lucille, who has been spending the summer there, returned with him.

A much-needed improvement would be a railing at the bridge east of town. Might save an accident and perhaps a life.

Miss Viola Pfeiffer is spending the week with her grandmother, Mrs. Geo. Hasel.

Miss Marie Sailer is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Sanford, at Elyria.

Frank Schaeffer and family took in the Lorain county fair on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Berndsen of Cleveland visited Mrs. Fred Barchord.

R. E. Carr has received over four dollars worth of new school books for the coming year.

Mrs. Hoffman of Wood county is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Stebel, Henry Houffler and Armbruster's.

Mrs. W. C. Hoppe entertained an auto load of her friends with a theater party at the Colonial Thursday evening.

Frank Weidner entertained a large number of his friends at his "Valley Home" farm Tuesday evening. All say they had an enjoyable time.

E. C. Hasel is contemplating moving to town.

The telephone company will install a new exchange in the Bank building next week.

Chas. Derck is able to be out again after ten days confinement to his bed, due to tonsillitis.

BURBANK

Denver George of Wooster, was the guest Monday of his mother.

Earl Weldy, who has been spending the greater part of the summer in Burbank, has returned to his home in Wadsworth.

Lala O'Hare of Gallon, spent a couple of days the past week with friends in town.

Misses Velyria and Myrtle Gast and Miss Maud Repp were in Wooster Saturday.

Mable Zainer of Ashland was the guest of her parents, John Baughman and wife, Saturday.

Rev. Burney of Navarre, attended the funeral of Mrs. Pauline Clinker, last week, Thursday.

Carl Sayers has gone to Kent for a few days visit with friends.

Floyd Strouse visited at the home of his grandfather near West Salem, Sunday.

John Double purchased a fine auto last week.

Arthur McDermitt and wife attended the Shaffer reunion at Odell's Lake, Tuesday.

Mrs. Alfred Strouse and daughter, Zola Haggans, visited friends near Polk, Thursday.

Clyde Striver and family of Rittman, visited friends in town Saturday.

John Dietz of Cleveland, and Miss Bertha Buckingham of Burbank, were united in marriage last Saturday. They will make their home in Cleveland. Congratulations.

Stanley Zainer of Akron, spent Sunday with friends in town.

SPENCER

The Auble reunion is to be held in the town hall September 11.

Mrs. Reuben Chapman and daughter Pearl of Bellevue have been the recent guests of their relatives the Gardner and W. H. Auble families.

The Rice reunion was held at the town hall in Spencer recently and was largely attended. A goodly number of them came from Ashland and Wayne counties in twelve or fourteen autos.

The work of paving the north Center road is progressing. The road is blocked against travel, now, making it very inconvenient for the farmers as well as others to get into town.

J. H. Gardner is making a ten days visit with friends in Elyria, Lorain and Cleveland.

Brose Garman has the east Smith road kid route for this school year.

70th ANNUAL FAIR

OF THE

MEDINA AGRICULTURAL ASSOCIATION

AT THE

MEDINA FAIR GROUNDS

Tues., Wed., and Thurs., Sept. 14, 15, and 16

BALL GAMES

Wednesday

Brunswick and Bennetts Corners

Thursday

To be announced next week

MEDINA BAND OF 22 PIECES

Will Play Both Wednesday and Thursday

Stock Judging Contest

On Thursday 16th

RACES

Wednesday

2:27 Trot	$300
2:22 Pace	$300
2:17 Trot	$300
Matinee Pace	$100

Thursday

2:27 Pace	$300
2:22 Trot	$300
2:17 Pace	$300
Matinee Trot	$100

DO NOT FAIL TO SEE THE FREE EXHIBIT OF THE OHIO EXPERIMENT STATION

Membership tickets may be secured at 25c, which entitles holder to a vote for next year's fair officials

Balloon Ascension Both Days

With 5 parachute drops by C. E. Bankston

There is a great demand being made for room for the display of agricultural implements of all kinds and of live stock

H. E. JENNE and H. S. ORR
Supts. Speed Dept.

O. O. VAN DEUSEN
Secretary

JOHN WHIPPLE
Supt. of Stables